ASKS FOR CHILD

Pretty Woman From Covington Institutes Proceedings

To Recover Child That Court Gave to Her—Writ of Habeas Corpus Issued.

Lee Lipps, of Covington, Kentucky, was taken before Judge Morris at Shelbyville this afternoon on a writ of habeas corpus, issued upon proceedings instituted by his former wife for the recovery of her child.

Sometime ago at Covington, Mrs. Lola Lipp was granted a divorce from her husband, Lee Lipp and was given the custody of their little daughter, Naoma. The court granted Lipp the privilege of calling and seeing his little girl occasionally. The little girl was persuaded to take long walks with her father and about two weeks ago, Lipp, it is alleged, kidnapped the little girl and fled to Shelbyville. From Shelbyville, Lipp and the little girl walked to the farm of Bush King, near this city, where they stayed all night with one of the tenants. The next morning the two walked to this city, where they took lodging at a house on Third street, where they have been staying ever since.

In the meantime, Mrs. Lipp and her attorney, Alfred E. Stricklett, learned that the father and child were in this city, and they came here yesterday and took lodging at the Wilson House on First street.

The police here were notified of the kidnapping, and after Lipp and his daughter had been located, the man was arrested.

Mrs. Lipp employed Hon. Frank J. Hall as her attorney here and yesterday instituted habeas corpus proceedings against her former husband for the recovery of the child.

Officer Ross took Lipp to Shelbyville today, where the case will be tried before Judge Morris at 5 o'clock this evening.

Since he came here Lipp has been working at the power house, and but lately went to work for Charles A. Murray, for whom he has been hanging shutters.

Mrs. Lipp is both young and pretty, and it is said comes of a good family. There is said to have been quite a romance connected with their marriage and subsequent divorce.

DID NOT ADVERTISE

World's Fair Managers Saw Their Mistake, But too Late.

The disappointments of opening day at the St. Louis Fair have fully justified the warnings of The Fourth Estate to the management, oft repeated, that no business enterprise of any considerable magnitude nowadays can be successful without newspaper advertising.

And it is much to be regretted that the managers, when they found that on one of the most delightful days St. Louis ever saw, they had not equalled the opening day attendance at Philadelphia twenty-eight years ago, resorted to a subterfuge to enable the local newspapers to claim with scarce heads, "All Records Broken."

The Philadelphia record of 1876 was 186,472. The figures for St. Louis, including all free passes, were 178,423, but after holding back the announcement twenty-four hours it was decided to add about 10,000 to cover "the large number of laborers and exhibitors who passed the night on the grounds, and of whose attendance no record was obtainable."

Although admitting that "no record was obtainable," the fair managers added 9,370 to the record, making a total of 187,793, and thus barely exceeding Philadelphia's record of a quarter of a century ago.

It is only fair to President Francis to say that in making the announcement he stated just how the matter was computed, leaving the public to judge of the ethics of the case, but he omitted to state that most of the laborers in question had not only "passed the night on the grounds," but had lived there for nights past in barracks guarded by armed sentries.

The managers can probably now feel that a little judicious advertising would unquestionably have increased the attendance at least a few thousands, or enough to have relieved the statisticians from the disagreeable dilemma herein referred to.

HEAD-END COLLISION

Excursion Train on Big Four Runs into B. & O. near Louisville.

A collision between a Big Four excursion train on the Michigan division and a Baltimore & Ohio passenger train occurred at Watson, Sunday night. The Big Four train, loaded with four hundred passengers, mostly women, was taking a siding to let the passenger train pass. The engine and two coaches had cleared the track when the north-bound passenger train crashed into the third coach of the excursion train, splintering it and throwing it from the track on its side. The fourth coach was derailed, but the fifth was left on the track. Women swooned and men became panic-stricken.

No one was seriously injured. The Baltimore & Ohio engine was demolished. The wreck was cleared away by 6:30 this morning. The Big Four took an excursion to Indianapolis yesterday and was returning. The Baltimore & Ohio train was bound for North Vernon.

AN AWFUL DISASTER

Excursion Steamer Burned in New York Harbor—Hundreds Perish.

A special to the Republican at 2:30 this afternoon reports one of the most shocking accidents of the year, five hundred lives being lost in a disaster equal or greater than the Iroquois fire in Chicago.

The steamer Gen. Slocum with 1000 or more women and children on board was leaving on a Sunday school excursion, and while in Hell Gate the boat caught fire, the hurricane deck caved in and about five hundred persons were burned to death.

It is estimated that 100 persons who jumped overboard were drowned. When the Glenn Slocum left the dock she had on board nearly 1000 women and children, nearly all members of the St. Mark's German Lutheran Sunday school, under whose auspices the excursion was given.

Free Delivery Wanted.

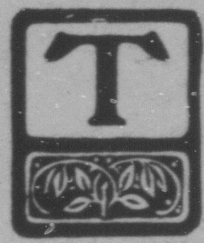

The New Castle Courier says that a rural carrier in Henry county was considerably astonished recently to receive the following letter from one of his appreciative patrons:

"Friend Sir: As you run the free delivery route by my house I would like you to bring me on your next trip a barrel of salt, two sacks of flour, also a ton of coal and three spools of wire, then throw a set of whiffletrees and an evener under the seat. When you come by Marion Walker's got two of his largest chicken coops and bring them along, then I can have my turkeys caught so you can take them to town. It wouldn't detain you but a minute. And I have eight loads of wood to get to town. Had I better get it out along side the road or will you go into the woods after it? I think this free delivery is a great thing for us rural people."

Several old soldiers, members of the 37th Regiment, the survivors of which are holding their annual reunion at Morristown, passed through here today from several points on their way to the reunion.

There Is No "Yellow Peril"

By Prince PU LUN, Heir Apparent to the Throne of China

THE yellow peril is an EMPTY ALARM. The yellow race menaces none but those that go to its part of the world to harass it. I do not believe there is a man in my country who is ambitious to see China have a great army and navy.

Why should an awakened China imperil any one? Northern China is as sparsely settled as the western United States. The people of China have room to stay there, and THEY HAVE WORK TO DO THERE. There are railroads to build in China, schools and colleges and factories. The mineral wealth of China remains virtually untouched. Would it harm the world did we embrace progress and do these things that we have to do?

So many of the white people seem to think that civilization and progress consist wholly IN SOLDIERS AND BATTLESHIPS.

IN CHINA WE HOPE TO BECOME SO FAR CIVILIZED THAT WE WON'T HAVE EITHER SOLDIERS OR BATTLESHIPS.

RUSH COUNTY

Pays Large Amount of Money to the State.

June Settlement Sheet Complete by Auditor and Money Paid Over by Treasurer Blacklidge.

Treasurer Blacklidge was at Indianapolis yesterday where he made a settlement with the treasurer of the State. He turned over to the State treasurer more than $20,000. His report shows the amount to be $3158.34 but the State school taxes are held until the distribution of the common school tuition fund is made and Rush county's proportion determined, when Treasurer Blacklidge remits the difference.

In some counties the State must pay a difference to the county, but in Rush where the population is richer comparatively, and the number of children less the county is obliged to pay a difference of nearly $5000 to the State.

The report of the Treasurer is quite interesting to the taxpayers and we give a brief summary of it as follows: The following amounts were turned over to the State treasurer:

School fund interest.....	$ 1628 23
Docket fees circuit court.....	86 00
State tax.....	8876 52
Benevolent institutions.....	4675 60

Total$31581 34

Collection of poll tax, which is included in above distribution of funds, amounts to:

State revenue.....	$ 573 50
State school revenue.....	573 50
County revenue.....	1147 00
Other purposes.....	606 87

Total$2900 87

Indiana's Wheat Crop.

Indiana wheat this year will lack over 15,000,000 bushels of reaching the amount produced in 1903, according to calculations being made by B. F. Johnson, State Statistician. Greene and Clark counties have made the most favorable reports, but these show that there will be a shortage in the crop. The poorest conditions are in the northern parts, including Cass, Lagrange, Kosciusko, Fulton, Miami and Stark counties. It is doubted that the total crop will exceed 25,000,000 bushels.

DEATHS.

Edward Everetts, Jr., son of Edward Everetts, Sr., colored, died last night at his home on First street, of tuberculosis. He was 23 years and six months old and was born at Lawrenceburg. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial at East Hill.

Word was received here this afternoon of the death of Mr. Wilson, of Arlington. Mr. Wilson was an uncle of Miss Lillie Wilson, of East Second street.

HORSE THIEVES

Judge Morris Sentences Man and Woman for Horse Stealing.

Harry McClain and Belle Vore, the capture of whom the readers of this paper were informed yesterday, were taken before Judge Morris at Shelbyville yesterday afternoon, and the judge read the charge, that of stealing a horse from William Meloy, the liveryman, valued at $75.

When asked of McClain whether or not he was guilty he answered, "Guilty." Judge Morris then sentenced him from one to fourteen years in the reformatory at Jeffersonville.

To this was added a fine of $50 and disfranchisement for five years.

Belle Vore was then asked the same question and she replied, "Guilty." She was sentenced from one to fourteen years in the Woman's prison at Indianapolis and to this was added a fine of $1 and disfranchisement for one year.

These two people make the fifth and sixth that have been "sent up" during the present term of the Shelby circuit court.

SATISFACTORY

Assessment This Year Seems to be Fair and Equal.

The Rush County Board of Review are still adding up the assessment sheets and proceeding along in the usual way.

Nothing of particular importance has as yet been done, and according to the members of the board, the grievances are as few as ever before in the history of the county. The session is open for the hearing of complaints of taxpayers, who believe that their assessments were not just as they might have been.

The assessment of improvements to real estate this year seems to have been accomplished with satisfactory results to both the county and to the property owners, for there have been no serious complaints registered. This speaks well for the work of the township assessors, who it is believed took special pains to give general satisfaction.

The fact that there was no assessment of real estate this year makes the work of the Board much easier than last year, but there is no doubt but that the people, generally speaking, are satisfied.

A VERY HOT OLD TIME

Illinois Democrats Enliven Their Convention by Fist Fights.

Chairman Retained his Control of Things and Ruled the Convention with an Iron Hand.

Governor—Lawrence B. Stringer of Lincoln.

Lieutenant Governor—Thomas J. Farns of Jerseyville.

Secretary of State—Frank E. Dooling of Sangamon county.

State Auditor—R. E. Spangler of Chicago.

State Treasurer—Charles B. Thomas of McLeansboro.

Attorney General—Albert Watson of Jefferson county.

University Trustees—Mrs. Anna G. Solomon of Chicago; Theodore C. Loehr of Carlinville; F. B. Merrill of St. Clair county.

Delegates-at-large to the St. Louis convention—John P. Hopkins, A. M. Lawrence, Ben T. Cable, Samuel Alschuler.

Springfield, Ill., June 15.—The above nominations were made at the Democratic state convention yesterday afternoon. John P. Hopkins of Chicago will succeed himself as chairman of the state central committee. William R. Hearst received from the convention what the Hopkins faction, which completely dominated the proceedings, knew he wanted, and Mr. Hearst's campaign managers, who aspired to control the Democratic party in this state, received what John P. Hopkins thought was coming to them.

The Illinois delegation was instructed to vote for Mr. Hearst at St. Louis as long as his name remained before the convention.

Mr. Hearst's campaign managers, who attempted to ride into power by the aid of his name, received absolutely no consideration whatever from the convention. The Harrison party, which came solely from Chicago and was pledged to the support of Congressman James R. Williams, was routed completely. Carter H. Harrison was unseated as a delegate and took a train for home without going near the convention. Both his faction and the Hearst party were as nothing compared with the strength and skillful management of the convention exhibited by Hopkins.

At the same time it must be said that never before in Illinois has there been a bolder display of ruthless gavel rule than that exhibited by John P. Quinn of Peoria, who presided over the convention both as temporary and permanent chairman. He paid absolutely no attention to men or motions when it did not jibe with the interests of the Hopkins plans for him to do so, and in one instance at least he declared a motion carried before the Hearst people had voted upon it.

Pending the arrival of the committee on resolutions a motion was carried directing the convention to proceed with the nomination of candidates for state offices.

"Before we proceed," said Chairman Quinn, "several of the candidates wish to address the convention."

William A. Prentiss of Chicago, who was a candidate for governor, advanced to the front of the platform. His face was white with wrath and his eyes blazing. He declared passionately that he desired nothing from the convention, it did not, in his opinion, represent the Democracy of Illinois, and he wished nothing at its hands.

"I decline to have my name submitted to this convention in any manner," he shouted, and walked off the platform, followed by the cheers of the Hearst delegates.

William C. Crolius of Joliet followed in a brief speech, indorsing the stand taken by Mr. Prentiss, and also withdrew his name from the convention.

Then came another long wait, during which the wildest confusion prevailed on the floor and several fist fights took place between the delegates. None of them amounted to more than an incidental diversion from the routine.

Clayton E. Crafts of Chicago then came forward with the platform. When he read:

"We, the Democrats of Illinois—" "Who are Democrats?" "You're no Democrat," came from the Hearst people, and the hoots and jeers that greeted Mr. Crafts compelled him to suspend for a time.

He had a similar experience when he announced, "We believe in the rule of the majority—" Pungent questions reeking with sarcasm were hurled at him in profusion and the hooters were again strongly in evidence. The resolution providing for the indorsement of Mr. Hearst was not made a part of the report of the committee on resolutions, but was submitted to the convention as a separate matter. The original resolution provided practically that the Illinois delegation should vote for Hearst until it was convenient to poll for somebody else. A substitute offered by Clarence S. Darrow, pledging the delegates to Hearst as long as his name is before the convention, was then adopted by a vote of 936 to 395.

The nomination of candidates was then taken up. Lawrence B. Stringer of Lincoln and Clarence S. Darrow of Chicago were named. Mr. Darrow declined to run and Mr. Stringer was nominated by acclamation. After the other candidates had been nominated the convention adjourned.

He Knew.

Doctor—Ah, out for a constitutional? She—Yes; I walk two miles before breakfast every morning for my complexion.

Doctor—Is the drug store so far as that?

Orange Township Conven- tion.

 the purpose of nominating a candidate

NOAH TRYON,
 Committeeman.

The Richmond Item thinks Steele
 was joking when he predicted Durbin's nomination for vice president.

Many Democrats in Indiana favor
 McClellan and Folk for candidates.
 Well we believe that the Folk end of it would keep Missouri in the Democratic column.

THE BIG STAR and the little journal has cut the Republican off its exchange list where it had been for half a century, and in turn we have cut them off our list. In the transaction, we reserved the right, however, to become a pay subscriber to that paper if it becomes necessary to our general welfare.

The "roasting" of the Republican convention in Illinois by the Democratic papers was a little premature,
 and the old adage that "he who laughs last laughs best" applies. In the Democratic State convention at Springfield yesterday. The feeling between the Hearst and anti-Hearst people was intense as the account of the meeting will show. The little incident of the reading of the platform is described as follows:

Then came another long wait, during which the wildest confusion prevailed on the floor and several fist fights took place between the delegates. None of them amounted to more than an incidental diversion from the routine. Clayton E. Crafts, of Chicago, then came forward with the platform. He read:

"We, the Democrats of Illinois—"

"Who are Democrats?"

"You're no Democrats," came from the Hearst people and the hoots and jeers that greeted Mr. Crafts compelled him to suspend for a time.

He had a similar experience when he announced "we believe in the rule of the majority"—pungent questions, reeking with sarcasm, were hurled at him in profusion, and the hooters were again strongly in evidence.

The fourteenth annual convention of the Confederate soldiers was held at Nashville, Tennessee, this week, and the speeches were interesting to read. The ex-confederate soldiers congratulated themselves upon the great and steady growth of the South and our country and expressed themselves as thankful that they were under one flag. Dr. McKim, the orator of the occasion, among other things
 said:

"We accepted the results of the war
 in good faith. We abide the arbitrament of the sword. We subscribe as sincerely as the men who fought against us to the sentiment, 'One flag,
 one country, one constitution, one destiny.' This is now for us an indis-soluble union of indestructible States.
 We are loyal to that starry banner.

"Strange as it may seem to one who does not understand our people;
 inconsistent and incomprehensible as it may appear, we salute yonder starry banner—the banner of the stars and stripes—as the symbol of our reunited country, and at the same moment that we do homage to the memory of the stars and bars.

"There is in our hearts a double loyalty today, a loyalty to the present
 and a loyalty to the dear dead past.
 We still love our old battle flag with the Southern cross upon its fiery folds. We have wrapped it 'round our hearts; we have enshrined it in the sacred ark of our love, and we will honor it and cherish it evermore
 —not now as a political symbol, but as the consecrated emblem of an heroic epoch; as the sacred memento of a day that is day, as the embodiment of memories that will be tender and holy as long as life shall last.

"The people that forgets its heroic dead is already dying at the hearts, and we believe that it will make for the strength and the glory of the United States if the sentiments that animate us today shall be perpetuated, generation after generation.

"We thank God that today the sun shines upon a truly reunited country.
 Sectionalism is dead and buried."

TURNING THEM BACK

Many Undesirable Emigrants Try to Get Into America.

New York, June 15.—According to the officials at Ellis Island the present
 influx of immigrants includes an unusually large proportion of undesirables, a total of 243 out of 19,595 having been already ordered deported, while 650 were held in the detention pen yesterday awaiting final decision on their cases, and 6,647 have been detained for various reasons, but may be landed later. This condition is believed to have been brought about partly by the recent cuts in steamship rates, and the third-class passengers on every incoming vessel are being watched with the greatest care. Last June one out of every 114 immigrants was turned back, while for the first eleven days of this month one out of every eighty has been deported as absolutely unfit to enter the United States.

Many of these now arriving, however, had bought their tickets long before the present low rates were in force, and it is thought those yet to come will be of a still worse class.
 Nearly 3,000 immigrants arrived on three steamships yesterday and the facilities at Ellis Island are being so severely taxed that the use of tents to care for these who are being detained
 has been suggested.

Sent Out of the Country.

Cripple Creek, Col., June 15.—Thirty-two of the prisoners confined in the bull-pen were placed aboard a Florence
 and Cripple Creek train and deported.
 It is reported that the destination of the deported men is Old Mexico.

When Democratic leaders permit themselves to speak in public of protection as an abomination, they should remember that the people are inclined to give a second thought to things now and then. For instance, the voter is likely to ask himself why protection should be looked upon as an abomination. And he is likely to recall the experiences that have come to the country under protection. And then he is likely to recall the experiences that the country has had when an attempt has been made to tamper with the tariff question on any other basis.
 In other words, he is likely to consider results rather than theories. And if he does this, whether he considers the results in other countries or in this,
 he finds that in every land development of the country and its various industries has come under this policy.
 Even Great Britain, which time and again has been held up to us as the ideal free trade country—even the commercial supremacy that came to Great Britain was built up by centuries of protection. And now, after half a century under a tariff for revenue—the nearest approach to free trade—that country, as John Sharp Williams, the Democratic leader, explicitly declares, is preparing to return to protection. We say the voter is likely to think of these things when the anti-protection advocate pretends to look upon protection as an abomination. And it would be well for these same leaders themselves to get down to some hard thinking on this same subject, for the truth is that the arbitrary voter can give them many a point that they themselves are too much inclined to ignore.

Holland today has 250 daily papers
 as compared with only five in 1840.

CLAMOR FOR TICKETS

Many Hoosier Republicans Want to Attend Big Convention.

Indianapolis, June 15.—The headquarters of the Indiana delegation to the Republican national convention at Chicago will probably not be opened before Sunday, although it was reported today that they may be opened as early as Friday or Saturday, as a number of the party leaders will leave here tomorrow and next day. Secretary Sims of the state committee says, however, that it is the plan now not to open the headquarters until Sunday morning. Although Indiana will have but 100 tickets outside those given the delegates and the alternates, the inquiries received at the state committee rooms indicate that there will be a large crowd of Hoosiers on hand.

Hugh Dougherty of Bluffton is slated for the Democratic nomination for governor and will probably accept if Judge Parker or some conservative is nominated for president and if the St. Louis convention leaves the party in a harmonious condition. While there is no positive admission to this effect from the party leaders who will practically have the making of the nomination, yet there are a number of circumstances pointing to its correctness. It has been no secret that Taggart and his lieutenants generally regard Dougherty as the logical candidate, inasmuch as John W. Kern of this city will not ask to be renominated; but up to this time Dougherty has flatly refused to permit the use of his name. He does not permit the use of his name now, but when asked here today if he will be a candidate or if he would accept, he refused to make a statement, saying that after the national convention will be the time to consider the personnel of the ticket.
 From this the inference may be drawn that he is not averse to accepting the nomination if the conditions are suitable. It is generally conceded that he is one of the most popular men in the state and that he would make an acceptable candidate to the party.

While the national, state and county campaign is just starting, it is also becoming evident that there is considerable sparring going on preparatory to the opening of the city campaign next year. It now seems to be almost a foregone conclusion that Charles A. Bookwalter will attempt to secure another nomination for mayor, although there have been no evidences that the Republicans who opposed him so bitterly last year have changed their opinion of him. But Bookwalter has always felt that he was defeated largely because his campaign was poorly managed and because many of his so-called political managers were very unpopular. An interesting feature of the situation is the rumor, apparently reliable, that he has cut the acquaintance of these men and that he is going into the campaign on his own hook. It has always been conceded here that he is a fine politician and a fearless and tireless worker, so the prospect of him becoming a candidate
 again promises a lively campaign.

All of the Republican members of congress from this state have arranged to attend the national convention.
 Congressman Hemenway of the First district will probably be the first one to reach Chicago, for he expects to be there tomorrow. He says that he is not going for the purpose of working for or against the nomination of Senator Fairbanks for vice president, but merely to be there early to meet his friends from other states. Since he became chairman of the committee on appropriations and floor leader in the house his circle of friends has grown and he is now one of the best known Hoosiers in the country. Congressman Crumpacker of the Tenth will be an early arrival at Chicago, as his district borders on the suburbs of the Windy City. The other members will be leaving Friday and Saturday. As they are all good politicians it is expected that they will make their presence felt as soon as they reach the scene of action.

Warren Bigler, former secretary of the Republican state committee, called at the headquarters today while en route to his home in Wabash from Mississippi, where he has just closed another big land deal. Since he left the committee Bigler has spent more than half his time outside the state.
 He was asked today about the political situation in Mississippi. He said that Mississippi seems so far removed from the center of the political stage that there is but little doing there in national politics. The Republicans are in hopeless minority and realize that they have but little voice in electing the national ticket. In local affairs the whites are arrayed against the blacks regardless of party beliefs. Bigler expressed the opinion that for the good of the country there ought to be two white men's parties. He is arranging to go to Chicago next week to attend
 the national convention.

Evidence of Infanticide.

 dead baby found in Richmond in three weeks was taken to Coroner Markley for investigation. The body was found a short distance southwest of the city limits. It had been wrapped in a newspaper and placed in a shoe box.
 The coroner says the baby was several days old when it died.

Murder and Suicide.

Lewistown, Pa., June 15.—Wm. A.
 Sheaffer, aged thirty-four years, shot and killed his mistress, Flora Wagner,
 formerly of Harrisburg, and then blew out his own brains. Inmates of the house say that the cause of the tragedy
 was jealousy on the part of Sheaffer.

A SEVERE CHECK

The Japanese Advance Was Successfully Resisted by Russians at Vafangow.

HELD THEIR POSITION

In the Face of Heavy Losses Russians Retained Their Strong Foothold
 at Strategic Point.

An Engagement to Which the Russian General Staff Attaches Much Importance.

Liao Yang, June 16.—Japanese artillery has opened up on Vafangow (a station on the railway twenty-five miles above Kin Chau). Details are awaited.

St. Petersburg, June 15.—The general staff remained in session until about 2 o'clock this morning to translate and give out Lieutenant General Baron Stakelberg's message announcing the fight at Vafangow. This unusually late hour indicates that the authorities attach considerable importance to the dispatch.

It is thought here that the Vafangow affair may prove to have been quite a heavy fight. The fact that the Russians hold their position in the face of heavy losses also supports this theory, and it is believed that it may turn out to be a severe check to the Japanese northern advance.

The movement of 3,000 Japanese north of Kuan Dian Shan only adds to the blindness of the situation in the northeastern field of operations. It is unquestionable that the Cossacks have been worrying the Japanese north of Feng Wang Cheng, and the movement may be merely an effort to clear the country. At the same time this movement holds the possibility of a demonstration against Mukden, one of the main roads leading directly east from Mukden toward the region to which the Japanese are now advancing.

The consensus of opinion, however,
 is that the advance is more in the nature of a demonstration than a preliminary to an actual attack.

A special dispatch from Liao Yang
 dated June 14, says: "Yesterday
 (Monday) at the battle of Vafangow Japanese troops numbering 20,000 tried to pass our flank but were discovered.
 We changed our position, flanking the Japanese, and opened a heavy fire.
 The result is unknown."

General Stakelberg's Report.

St. Petersburg, June 15.—Emperor
 Nicholas has received the following telegram from Lieutenant General Baron Stakelberg bearing Tuesday's date: "A battle began at noon around the Russian position four and a half miles south of the station of Vafangow,
 the enemy making repeated attempts to dislodge our left flank. The attack was repelled and we retained our position. The first regiment occupying the left flank of our position sustained severe losses. Its commander, Colonel Khavantouff, and Adjutant Sub-Lieutenant Dragosloff Nodchinsky were killed. General Gerngross was wounded, a shrapnel bullet shattering
 the right side of his jaw, yet he remained on the field."

Victim of His Own Invention.

Tokio, June 15.—The officer killed
 in the accident to the torpedo ships
 Taihoku was Lieutenant Commander
 Oda. He was the inventor of the Japanese mine and, by his great activity
 and skill throughout the operations
 before Port Arthur, had added largely to his reputation.

A Russian Expert View.

St. Petersburg, June 15.—The Vaz-edchik, the leading service magazine,
 in reviewing the war, arrives at the conclusion that after three and a half months the Russians find themselves exactly where they expected to be,
 while the Japanese are behindhand.

COUNTY NEWS

Arlington.

The weather is fine. Odd-Fellows and other fellows decorated the graves of their departed friends Sunday.

Mr. Rafe Shelton and lady, of Manilla, visited friends at Arlington, Sunday.

The Arlington band furnished the music for the Odd-Fellows at Milroy for their decoration exercises last Sunday.

Mr. Ketchner, the man finishing the grade work on the traction line from town east, has moved his camp to Frank Offutt's lot near the bridge, just east of town.

As Mrs. Shelton was going to the front door of Harrison Nelson's house, Sunday morning, she was somewhat taken back when she discovered a large black snake laying stretched out on the porch in her path to the entrance. Mr. Shelton procured a club and proceeded to dispatch the reptile which measured 7½ feet, or less.

The Hon. Wm. Cumbback made a very appropriate address to the order of Odd-Fellows last Sunday in our town at the decoration services which was very largely attended.

Two boys were born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jordan since Saturday evening. Both children and mother are reported as doing well, but Thomas is strutting around considerably of late. Now Tom there are other fathers in Posey that have had to enjoy the noise of twins before you left old Kentucky.

The abutment that has been finished at the crossing of Little Blue river, just east of town on the C. & I. traction line is a model of beauty and has the appearance of a perfect one.

Dr. Tom Green and wife, of Shelbyville, were at Arlington Monday and while here supplied themselves with some fine green currants to take home with them.

Harrison Nelson is now remodeling the old barn that stands on the hill known as the old Green barn, built years ago by Dr. J. W. Green. Harrison is continually improving.

Parties wanting to take out a small insurance for their lives can do no better than the Modern Woodmen of America, and there is now on foot a move to organize a camp at this place as soon as possible and as it admits no one older than 45 years, it behooves some of our best material to get a hustle and get right in the procession. Oscar Marshall has the petition for the charter. See him and place your name just below the other fellow—and he will do the rest.

The gentleman who is inspecting the building of the Mud Creek bridge abutments is boarding at Herman Leonard's, on the hill near the center of the town.

OPENED WITH PRAYER

Indiana Village Dance Given a Unique Introduction.

Brazil, Ind., June 15.—The Knights-ville Pastime club gave a dance at Knightsville, and the ball was opened with prayer. Many of those in the club are also members of the Knights-ville M. E. church. When the idea of giving the dance was announced, the pastor and official board of the church protested against the young people of the church participating, and a good deal of warm talk resulted. The pastor and his adherents finally compromised on the condition that they be invited to the dance and, if they found anything objectionable the ball was to cease. Those who opposed the dance entered the hall at 8 o'clock, opening the event with prayer and religious song, and the pastor and his party watched the dancers for some time. It is believed that the contention has not ended.

Will Make Test Case.

Denver, Col., June 15.—A hearing is to be given to C. G. Kennison, president of the Cripple Creek miners' union, to test the legality of his arrest. The prisoner will be taken back to Cripple Creek for trial if the court finds that he was legally arrested. Eighty-seven warrants are out for miners who are accused of complicity in the explosion at the Independence station and the rioting at Victor.

Fatal Railway Wreck.

Carbondale, Ill., June 15.—The Chicago & North Western passenger train on the Illinois Central was wrecked in the terminal yards in this city and John Hamilton, a cigarmaker of Memphis, was instantly killed and several passengers bruised and injured. Hamilton was riding on the blind baggage.

Meat Dealers Protest.

Watertown, N. Y., June 15.—The State Butchers and Meat Dealers' Protective association in convention here adopted a resolution condemning the action of the trusts in raising the price of meat at the present time, the association believing that conditions do not warrant it.

Confederate Veterans Meet.

Nashville, Tenn., June 15.—Under every condition tending to a successful reunion, Nashville is entertaining the United Confederate Veterans and their friends, constituting a host conservatively estimated at 30,000 people.

COMRADES GATHER

Warsaw Is Crowded With Indiana Veterans of a Great War.

PROMINENT VISITORS

Among the Notables Present Are National Commander Black and Mrs. John A. Logan.

The Great Annual Parade of the Veterans Was the Feature of This Afternoon.

Warsaw, Ind., June 15.—General John C. Black, national commander of the Grand Army; General Peter J. Osterhaus of Germany, who fought on the Union side during the civil war, and

MRS. JOHN A. LOGAN.

Mrs. John A. Logan, widow of the famous general, are among the distinguished guests at the 25th annual encampment of the Department of Indiana, G. A. R., which is in session here. Both Warsaw and Winona are crowded with veterans from Indiana and adjoining states. Department Commander Grubbs presided over the first business session of the organization in the Winona auditorium today. The annual parade, in which 6,000 veterans and Governor Durbin and his staff participated, took place this afternoon.

WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN

Summary for Indiana for the Week Ending Monday, June 13.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 15.—Abnormally low temperature prevailed throughout the entire week. The average daily deficit was about 6 degrees. Precipitation during the week consisted of light to moderate showers at a few scattered places. The ground is in good condition generally, but with the exception of a few localities, is beginning to need more moisture.

Planting corn is practically finished, but there is some replanting to do. A large acreage has been put in and, although late and on account of low temperature growing slowly, the crop generally is clean and promising. Some fields of corn are receiving the second cultivation.

Wheat has continued to improve in appearance and is heading in places but with few exceptions the crop is very unpromising. The fly has attacked it in several localities, particularly on the experimental farm, Lafayette, where it is estimated that not less than 40 per cent of that which survived the winter has been destroyed.

Oats continue in good condition, but are making very slow growth. Rye is headed out and most fields promise a full average crop. Clover and timothy and all grasses are growing nicely and, with the exception of old clover, promise good crops. In Brown county apples are reported to be failing badly, but generally the prospects for fruit of all kinds, excepting peaches, are good.

Dynamite Was Used.

Bluffton, Ind., June 15.—An attempt was made to blow up the home of Mrs. Mattie Connor in Oklahoma, a suburb of this city. A charge of dynamite was placed under the kitchen, but only that part of the house was damaged, the loss being small. No one was injured. Suspicion points to a man who wanted to file an affidavit against Mrs. Connor, on complaint that she was sheltering his wife under her roof.

Guilt of Attempted Murder.

Evansville, Ind., June 15.—Carl Brown, colored, who shot and severely wounded Herdic Wilson, streetcar conductor, two weeks ago, because Wilson demanded payment of fare, has been found guilty of attempted murder. The defendant was fined $500 and costs and was committed to prison under the indeterminate sentence act.

Caught in Cave-in.

Newcastle, Ind., June 15.—While cleaning out a well at his home in Mechanicsburg, there was a cave-in of brick and earth, burying I. Keesling. Helpers uncovered him as quickly as possible, but he was dead when brought to the surface, having been suffocated.

Morristown, Ind., June 15.—The jewelry store of A. F. Zimmerman was entered and jewelry valued at $400 was taken. The robbers effected an entrance by prying open a window. There is no clue to their identity.

WILL TELL IT ALL

Nan Patterson's Lawyer Says Her Story Will Clear Her.

New York, June 15.—Mrs. Nan Patterson, actress, who was indicted by the grand jury for the murder of Frank (Caesar) Young, in a cab June 4, was arraigned before Judge Newburger Tuesday to plead to the charge. At the request of her counsel, Abraham Levy, the pleading was deferred until next Friday, when a motion for the inspection of the minutes of the grand jury will be made. Counsel Levy said that it was his purpose to bring the case to trial at the earliest possible moment. "Nan Patterson will go on the stand and tell her story of the death of Young," he said. "Her story will clear her. She will conceal nothing."

NAN PATTERSON.

Lawyer Levy hopes that the trial may be called some time in July.

FIFTY SHOTS FIRED

When Smoke Cleared Away Three Were Dead and Two Wounded.

Bedford, Ind., June 15.—As the result of a duel fought on the public streets at Bryansville, a town of 300 inhabitants, eight miles west of here, three are dead and two fatally wounded. The dead are: James Rout, aged thirty-two; Charles Rout, thirty-six; Milt Tow, twenty-four. Wounded—James Tow and Frank Tow.

The participants in the affair were brothers, the Rout boys living in Bedford and the Tow brothers at Bryansville. The latter are relatives of the Tows, who were made famous by the celebrated Tow-Bass factions, whose strife in the past decade has formed a bloody epoch in the history of Lawrence county and southern Indiana.

The shooting followed the alleged determination of the Rout brothers to "get even" for some fancied insult, to which they took exception, some days ago. No one can be found who will positively say who fired the first shot, but in a moment revolvers were drawn and a pitched battle ensued. Conservative estimates place the number of shots fired at fifty.

Citizens Are Indignant.

North Manchester, Ind., June 15.—In a few days the affairs of the North Manchester Bank, which closed its doors last Saturday evening, will be taken into the bankruptcy court. While this failure in dollars and cents is not so great as the failure of many other banks in Indiana, there is a good deal of indignation over the way the bank was conducted, and the manner of its closing, and there is a desire on the part of many of the creditors to find out just how the thing was done.

Old Man's Desperate Deed.

St. Cloud, Minn., June 15.—After stabbing his wife to death and setting fire to his fine farmhouse Frank Nelson, a wealthy farmer, seventy years old, placed a noose about his neck and, stabbing himself in the breast, lurched forward into eternity.

Has Distinguished Precedent.

Champaign, Ill., June 15.—William McKinley of Champaign was nominated for congress by the Republican convention of the Nineteenth Illinois district. Colonel Vespasian Warner is the present congressman.

Governor Odell's Return.

New York, June 15.—Governor B. B. Odell of New York has returned from a three weeks' trip abroad.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

Gen. Lee will succeed Gen. Gordon as commander of the confederate veterans. D. O. Haynes has disposed of his interest in the New York Commercial to Edward Payson Call.

Little Collins, eighteen, Jackson, Ky., was shot and accidentally killed by a younger brother.

John McBride, a former policeman at El Paso, shot and killed a negro because he sat down to a table with him.

The fourteenth international convention of the Baptist Young People's Union of America, will be held in Detroit, Mich., July 6th to 10th. Ten minutes after receiving word that her brother, William Mickey, had been killed by a train at Sherwood, Wis., Mrs. J. Bruhl, of Appleton, dropped dead.

While the Japanese transport Taihoku Maru was placing mines at the entrance to Port Arthur harbor, Monday evening, one of the mines exploded, killing one officer and eighteen men. A committee of leading business men of Cripple Creek declared that in the future no other walking delegates, agitators, nor labor unions will be allowed to say who may or who may not labor in Teller county.

An old feud resulted in a pistol duel on the streets of Bryansville, Ind., and James and Charles Rout and Milt Tow were killed, and James and Frank Tow dangerously wounded.

WHY NOT?

Millionaire—"What are you doing hanging around here?"

Weary Willie—"I'm a sociologist investigating de homes of de wealthy."

Strike Declared Off. Cleveland, Ohio, June 15.—The tie-up on the great lakes has been declared off so far as the masters are concerned.

Greeted With Laughter.

New York, June 15.—An attempt to introduce resolutions of sympathy with the union miners of Colorado at the session of the board of aldermen met with so much opposition that the resolution was withdrawn before it had been read. Alderman Dowling, who presented the resolutions, said he did so at the request of trade unionists, and he believed them to be of great importance. Many of the aldermen evidently did not take the resolutions seriously, and the reading clerk was repeatedly interrupted by laughter.

EXTRAORDINARY ACCOMMODATIONS AT ST. LOUIS FAIR

Splendid Hotel Right Inside Exposition Grounds—Thousands of Rooms at Very Moderate Rates—

Visitors to the World's Fair at St. Louis need not fear either lack of accommodations or extortionate prices. Under the World's Fair Management a huge hotel has been built right inside the Exposition grounds where every comfort and modern convenience at most reasonable rates can be enjoyed by all.

This new departure in world's fair accommodations is called "The Inside Inn" and it is built and furnished upon the same lavish scale which characterizes every feature of the big show. It is three stories high, is 400 feet wide and 800 feet long. It contains spacious reception rooms, reading rooms, parlors and offices and its dining hall and restaurant will seat 2,500 people to a meal at a single sitting. It has 2,257 bedrooms the price which range from $1.50 to $5.50 per day on the European plan and from $3.00 to $7.00 on the American plan, including daily admission to the exposition, all guests enjoying the same dining-room privileges and service. The Inside Inn is under the direct management and supervision of E. M. Statter, the well-known caterer of Buffalo. This fact alone is sufficient guarantee that the cuisine and service will always be of the very highest order.

Those who remember the heartbreaking weariness of the long journey homeward after a tiring day at the World's Fair at Chicago or the Pan-American at Buffalo will instantly appreciate the extraordinary convenience and comfort afforded by thus residing right within the Exposition grounds. No admission fee other than the first will be needed by guests of The Inside Inn, while the saving effected of car fares, suburban train service, etc., will prove a valuable item to those who study economy.

The enormous capacity of The Inside Inn assures ample accommodations for all—no matter when or in what numbers they come—but those who prefer to secure their rooms in advance may make reservations now for any period during the life of the Fair. A post card addressed to The Inside Inn, Administration Bldg., World's Fair Grounds, St. Louis, Mo., will bring a most interesting booklet, giving every possible detail.

"BEAUTIFUL WINONA."

Excursions via Pennsylvania Lines to that Pretty Resort.

With the opening of the season at Winona Lake, May 16th, the sale of excursion tickets over the Pennsylvania Lines to that attractive resort in Northern Indiana will begin. Every summer passed there by thousands has only increased their desire to return. On the golf links, the tennis court, the baseball or cricket ground, the croquet field, or boating on the lake, fishing, camping, swimming, driving, or attending recitals and lectures by world-famed personages in the auditorium—Whatever the diversion may be, the associations are of that congenial sort conferred by good society. This resort is noted as the site of Winona Assembly and Summer School, attracting teachers and students from educational institutions of this and other countries. Fifteen-day and season excursion tickets will be sold from ticket stations on the Pennsylvania Lines during the summer. For information about fares and time of trains, apply to local ticket agents, or to F. VANDERBILT, Chief Assistant General Passenger Agent, Pittsburgh, Pa. Illustrated literature describing attractions of Winona Lake may be had for the asking. Address S. C. DICKER, Secretary and General Manager, Winona Lake, Ind., who will give particulars regarding camping facilities, hotel accommodations, program of addresses by noted speakers and other details.

The Daily Republican

RUSHVILLE, IND., JUNE 15, 1904

LOCAL BREVITIES

Thomas Madden, Sr., is transacting business at Indianapolis today.

E. A. Lee is spending a few days at the St. Louis World's Fair.

Did you ever notice how much more attractive and prominent an ad looked in the Republican than in any other paper in the city?

A carload of hand cars, push cars and track picks arrived yesterday evening for the traction line. The cars, etc. will be used in laying the track.

Some of the Rushville parties attending the United Presbyterian meeting at Spring Hill went in rigs while others went on the train as far as Milford.

James E. Watson is at Greencastle, where he attended the banquet of the alumnae, and will deliver an address to the Epworthians who are in session there.

The railroad officials met at Indianapolis yesterday and agreed on a rate of one cent per mile to the G. A. R. National encampment at Boston, August 15-20.

The case of Eddie Oneil charged with assault and battery, which was set for trial in the Mayor's court this afternoon, has been continued until next Monday.

Greensburg Review: Otis Caldwell, Leonard Clark, Will Winship and Clyde Early, of Rushville, came down this afternoon to attend the party at Doles' Pond this evening.

Jabez Smith, assisted by George Conrad, hung the three large American flags from the court house windows yesterday in commemoration of Flag Day. Jabe's patriotism can always be relied upon.

The Indianapolis Union Stock yards, whose sheds were destroyed by fire recently, will be rebuilt with steel construction. Permit for the erection of new sheds was taken out yesterday. The cost is placed at $100,000.

Reader, stop! Glance at the ads in the Republican, not only do you find that all the enterprising business men in Rushville have a space in the paper in which they offer attractive bargains but you find them set up in neat style and carefully printed.

Stetson's Uncle Tom's Cabin Company, which showed at the City Opera House during the winter of 1902, will show in this city next Wednesday, June 22, under water proof canvas. The show will come here from Greensburg from which place the bill-posters came this morning to begin advertising the show in this city.

—Miss Nellie Bigham, who has been attending the spring term, at Bloomington, Ind., will return home to this city, next Thursday, June 23d for the summer.

The differences between Charles Moore and the barbers' union of this city has been readjusted and Moore's name has been withdrawn from the unfair list. The dispute grew out of charges preferred by the union against Moore, who it was alleged, shaved a man on decoration day after 10:30 a. m. Moore was fined but denied the charges and refused to pay the fine.

A general order has been issued by the Pennsylvania Railroad company to the company's uniform department is ready to supply the enginemmen with the adopted uniform, which consists of canvas cloth of salt and pepper effect, the trousers having a blue stripe down the outside seam and the blouse cut in military style, having keystone embroidered on the points of the collar. While they are not to be worn by compulsion, it is expected that all the freight and passenger enginemmen will fall into the line.

Indiana will receive $31,826.73 as its share of $10,000,000 appropriated by congress for the maintenance of the national guard of the United States. This money is now being apportioned among the several states by the secretary of the war. The list will not be given out for publication until the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1, but Indiana will receive the amount stated.

Festival Tonight.

The first division of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will give a lawn fete and festival at the church tonight. All are invited.

Contest Ends.

The Commercial Tribune contest for a trip to the World's Fair ends today. Miss Tonyes, of Milroy, had up until last evening 3666, and Miss Odear, of this city, 5170.

Will Not Consolidate.

The report going the rounds in the papers that the Union Traction company and the I. & C. traction company were contemplating consolidation was not printed in the Republican because an inquiry made to corroborate that rumor developed that there was nothing whatever in the rumor.

Will Not go Free.

Under a ruling of Judge Downey, who denied to admits James Gillespie to bail, the prisoner has been remanded to the jail in Rising Sun. Gillespie and the three other persons charged with the murder of Elizabeth Gillespie were hopeful of favorable action by the court, Gillespie wanting to get out of jail and the others desiring to be released from bond. The matter will be appealed to the supreme court.

Presbyterians Convention.

The district Presbyterian convention of the Young People's Christian Union of the U. P. churches in this part of the State is being held at Spring Hill in Decatur county, and a number of persons from this city are attending. Among the number who went this morning were Rev. W. P. McGarey, A. C. Brown, George Püntteny, Jr., Roy Goodwell, Elmer Warfield, Mrs. Herman Miller, Mrs. William Cherry, Miss Susie Lewis, Miss Mary Amos, Clara and Ethel Applegate.

Another Dead Body Found.

The third dead baby found in Richmond in three weeks was taken to Coroner Markley yesterday morning. The body was found a short distance southwest of the city limits, near Elliot's mills. It had been wrapped in a newspaper and placed in a shoe box. The coroner says the baby was several days old when it died, but as in the other cases he is unable to state positively whether death was due from natural causes. Coroner Markley and the police department are considerably disturbed over the third find and the absence of clues in any of the cases.

To Owners of Pianos.

I will be in Rushville the week of June 20th. Send me word at the Scanlan House if your piano needs any attention. FRED W. PORTERFIELD. fr-tu-d6t

A Correction.

The article in the papers last evening regarding the Chas. Moore Barber Shop being run unfair, it has been found by the Barbers' Union that he was right and not unfair, and has the union label in the shop, and we, as a union, do recommend that those in sympathy with the union patronize his shop as before. W. E. SARGENT, Pres. JOE DEMMER, Sec.

ATTRACTIONS

And Premium List of Fair to be Better Than Ever.

Secretary King, of the Rush County Fair Association says the attractions at the county fair this year will be bigger and better than ever.

The committees in charge are now negotiating with the Barnes' Theatrical company for the services of "Dare-Devil" Tilden, the most death defying spectacle in the world. His feat consists in coming down a steep incline of 170 feet long and 72 feet high on a bicycle, but leaves his bicycle at the brink of the incline and plunges headlong a distance of 72 feet through the air into a tank of water four feet deep.

They are also endeavoring to produce Dr. William Carver and his diving horses. Dr. Carver is sometimes called the "Wizard" and is the champion shot of the world. His horses named "Powder Face" and "Cupid" are wonders and draw large crowds. The premium lists are now ready. They are larger than ever and have been thoroughly revised.

Mexico is making a serious effort to stamp out yellow fever. The United States leads all countries as a consumer of coffee.

Nebraska Indians vs. Rushville

South Main-st. Grounds

This is the game that was scheduled for May 26th, in this city and postponed on account of rain. The manager of the Rushville team has been under a heavy expense in procuring this team and there will be an extra charge of 10 cents for the grand stand, to help defray this expense.

Nothing need be said about the Indians, as every one knows that it is the best team on the road.

I will be compelled to charge the ladies to see this game.
